

---

Types of Educational/Training Leaves

- a. Within the limits of College resources, an educational/training leave of absence with full expanded course delivery, service delivery, information systems delivery).
- b. Within the limits of College resources, an educational/training leave of absence for the leave primarily for second the benefit to the College goals of the staff member, and are
- c. Within the limits of College resources, an educational/training leave of absence with no pay during the leave for the staff member (including the staff member's salary) for a period of pursuit of a lengthy or long-term course or series of studies);
  - (b) no activities offer to the staff member for a priority relation such that a prepaid leave year is inappropriate to the staff member's needs.

B. Purpose

Appointing College resident faculty as to an educational/training leave of absence as educational/training

